

Some of Tonya's Favorite Ukulele Sites

Revised March 14, 2008

Sites with bulletin boards, ukulele news and songs—

These sites are general ukulele sites; many have forums and bulletin boards—all filled with nice folks who love these little instruments.

Sites with ukulele songs and chords—

These sites contain songs with ukulele chords, and in some cases, tablature.

Specifically for ukuleles:

General chord sites If you find a song you like there, just play the chord “name” and it’ll translate fine (or transpose to get a less “guitar” sound). Also note that some of the sites are “closing down” their listings due to fear from the record companies that sharing the chords violates copyright. Still, give ‘em a try and see what you get!

(usually for guitar, but useable for ukuleles, see note above); there are many, many of these on the internet—this is just a sample:
